Community Dance Project NYC (CDPNYC) is looking for three strong contemporary Jazz and Musical Theater dancers for upcoming paid performances, including the 92Y Street Festival (September 18th).

Dancers should have a strong background in contemporary jazz dance with an interest in acting/storytelling through movement. Musical Theater experience is a plus. Most performances are part of a collaboration with the Harkness Dance Center, dancers must enjoy dance education, children, and making an impact in the community through dance and dance education.

Dancers should be available on Sunday evenings for classes and rehearsals.

To see a sample of our movement styles please view the two videos below from a recent performance (Broadway Takes Two):
