Jillian Peña is a dance and video artist whose work seeks to make visible the confusion and desire of the self in relationship to itself and others. Her work is in dialogue with psychoanalysis, queer theory, Russian ballet, pop media, and spirituality. Peña was nominated for a 2016 Bessie for Outstanding Emerging Choreographer, and was awarded the Prix Jardin d'Europe 2014 at ImpulsTanz Dance Festival in Vienna. She has created work for American Ballet Theater.
