Need for the upcoming school year:

Experienced Ballet Teacher needed for young students (ages 3 -10). Must be comfortable and passionate with young students and see teaching the littlest as an opportunity to prepare them for a graded ballet curriculum. Needed for Monday afternoons starting September 19th. Great location in the city, competitive pay. Please email resume.

Experienced Instructor who is confident in teaching HipHop to young students between the ages of 4 and 12. Days are Tuesdays afternoons and Saturday mornings starting September 19, with room for additional classes and workshops in the near future. Need someone who is interested in helping grow a professional program. Must have patience, creativity and be committed to excellence. Prime location in the city. Please email resume.

In both positions, we would like someone who is passionate about educating young children, and see it as an opportunity to lead the next generation of young dancers. Thanks for your interest.
