Curated Care connects families with local artists and teachers for activity-based childcare, in the home and on your schedule. We have tons of awesome families looking for a consistent "Kid Expert" to offer after-school pick up, enriching activities and babysitting for the school year.

This is a fantastic gig for teachers and teaching artists! We are a true community of creative kid gurus and are looking to bring tons of folks into our downtown offices to meet and get started ASAP.

REQUIRED: Degree, certification, specialized training and/or professional experience working with children, ideally 10 and under.

APPLICANT: Please email a recent resume and introductory paragraph. Please provide a few sentences about what activities you'd like offer and your availability.
