Born from the desire for community and the need for accountability, The Iteration Project is a creative process community bringing together artists from around the world. Our mission is to hold community members accountable to a continued creative practice while challenging them to expand, explore, and amplify their unique individual voices in the context of an international community regardless of location.

To join the community visit our website and sign up for the newsletter to receive the latest creative prompts. Be sure to post your explorations on Instagram and follow us (@theiterationproject) to see explorations by fellow community members.

Whether you live and work in a dance mecca or you find yourself off the beaten path, we all need to be part of a creative community. Through The Iteration Project, we hope to reduce artistic isolation and help you find and create the community you desire.
