Movement Research's Artist-in-Residence program (AIR) 2016

What is the Artist-in-Residence (AIR) program?

A two-year residency program providing commissioning support, rehearsal space, performance and related opportunities designed to support the individualized creative process of movement-based artists. AIR artists are chosen by a rotating artist panel.

Five (5) - Six (6) artists will be selected to participate in the 2017 Movement Research Artist-in-Residence program via this application process. Applications will be reviewed and selected by a panel of three artists. MR AIRs selected through the panel review process will receive commissioning funds supported through The Jerome Foundation.

Artists must apply as individuals.

Applicants must be residents of New York City. Resident means that your permanent mailing address is in New York City/one of the 5 Boroughs.

Applications must be submitted online.

Deadline: Applications must be submitted online by 11:59pm on February 15, 2017. Application will be available in December. Check our website for application.*

You may not save the application in progress: Once the applications are submitted they cannot be edited.*
