

Wednesday, October 19, 2016

Open Call! "Dancing for the Streets" with Omari and Shea from House of Mizrahi

Company: clapit

► Share | Print | Download

Compensation: Prizes: A trip to NYC to create professional dance reel and work on choreography w/ House of Mizrahi dancers Omari and Shea

Now is your chance to be discovered as the next great dance talent and win a trip to NYC! Enter Clapit's #danceit open call now!

This week, Vogue dancers from the iconic House of Mizrahi– Shea Mizrahi and Emperor Omari Mizrahi – and social entertainment community Clapit launched Dancing for the Streets, a two week open call to recognize performing artists and dancers from across the USA.

The winner will receive an all-expenses paid trip to New York City for an awards event where they will be named 'America's Best Dancer' and the new Clapit Ambassador of Dance. They will also receive a day in studio with Shea and Omari to create a pro pack with a professional photographer/videographer.

More info at clapit.com

How to enter:

1. Download clapit on your iPhone
2. Create your ME profile on clapit
3. Shoot an original video of up to 20 seconds of you dancing your favorite style
4. Hashtag #danceit and upload on clapit to be eligible to win
5. Share with your friends and get them to clap you on! Entry with most claps wins.

You have until November 14th = The sooner you enter the better your chances! Details and rules available at www.clapit.com/open-calls/

clapit
www.clapit.com

For more information:
clapit team
contact@clapit.com

< back

previous listing • next listing