nathantrice/RITUALS dance theater is currently looking for enthusiastic dancers who seek professional experience to perform in our March 2017 performances of the Recognizing Women Project. The Recognizing Women Project is a research and performance initiative that creates artistic/educational dance theater addressing various contributions and experiences of women. Through a collaborative research process between university/college students and our company, the RWP develops an inter-disciplinary understanding of a specific focus around women that will be developed into a new work. The RWP's March 2017 season will develop and present new work that addresses female self-objectification and the intersectionality of women's experiences.
