An Evening of Duets is an annual production that highlights duets from the romantic to the volatile, presenting innovative choreographers and their professional dance companies from around the US. The mission of this production is to enrich, unite, inspire and to give an outlet for choreographers, dancers, musicians and poets to collaborate and present works for the Philadelphia community.

Companies have participated from Philadelphia and its suburbs, New York, Washington DC, New Jersey, California, and Virginia.

Looking for duet material no longer than 10 minutes in length.

All genres of dance accepted.
Collaborations with
Musicians, Poets, Visual Artists, etc encouraged!

Participating companies are offered theatre space, technical assistance, box office management, press and marketing materials, photos and share the profits of ticket sales.
