Jazz/Classical Off-Broadway Opportunity!

STOMP meets JULLIARD meets SMALLS!

We are looking for a talented choreographer to be a part of our off-broadway play, FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH. A Romeo and Juliet-esque off-broadway where the musicians are the actors on stage. The two families at odds are Jazz instruments vs. Classical instruments.

Performances are at 80 St. Marks in late May. Rehearsals are Monday's, Wednesday's and Fridays from 10 to midnight in Manhattan. Choreography rehearsals begin in March.

Must be ok with being on camera and being a part of a film as this will be a feature film as well.
