Member & Community Relations Intern

Company: The Joyce Theater Foundation

Location: NEW YORK, NY

Compensation: Unpaid Internship

► Share | Print | Download

The Joyce Theater Foundation seeks an enthusiastic, self-starting individual to support our Member and Community Relations manager in upcoming projects. This unpaid internship position is ideal for someone experienced in market research techniques like: identifying local businesses and organizations, cold-calling, mailing lists, creating databases, etc. in addition to day-to-day office support.

The internship starts immediately and runs through mid-April. A college student or recent graduate is preferred. A large part of this individual's position will be focused on The Joyce's upcoming engagement of The Joffrey Ballet's Romeo & Juliet at the Koch Theater at Lincoln Center.

Please submit a cover letter outlining your experience and skill set along with your resume to: Heather McCartney - hmccartney@joyce.org. No calls please.
