Casting dancers for a low budget music video in Brooklyn! Preferably with a background in ballet and/or interpretive. Unfortunately no pay, just credit, so would be great for someone looking for exposure or a resume builder. The artist has made a few videos before, all of which were written up in popular media like Stereogum, The A.V. Club, The Chicago Tribune, and more. We promise, it'll be a REALLY cool shoot! Please email emily.steiker@gmail.com with submissions and include a description of your experience level, pictures, and a video of you dancing (if possible.) Must be available this saturday morning (6/10) and most of sunday (6/11). Open to all ethnicities, genders, & body types.
