Joanna Stella

Hello!

Murder on the Runway is looking for 1 male dancer that is comfortable with speaking roles at a murder mystery event taking place November 11th on Long Island (Farmingdale, NY).

Weekly rehearsals will be in Queens and will occur mostly on Saturday nights.

As a performer, you will be expected to interact with the guests attending the event while acting as an assigned character. This will require spoken improvisation and some imagination! You will also be expected to perform up to 3 dances throughout the night.

The style of dance will vary depending on dancers selected, but modern/contemporary dance training is a plus! Acting experience is not necessary, but also a plus!

Dancers will be provided professional photos and video footage from the event to add to their portfolio.

If you are interested in performing please email Carlye at murderontherunway@gmail.com with a resume and dance video sample/reel.
