How To Join Us:

- Please send a cover letter and resume to info@flyyogaarts.com, detailing your relevant experience. To be considered, you will teach a mock class held during the last week of August or first week of September. If successful you will also need to complete 7 class observations/assistant teaching as well as our full-weekend Immersion Training ($350 which can be deducted from your pay or through work-study). These additional trainings can happen in conjunction with beginning your own class.
- Attendance at our Friday, September 8th Teaching Artist Meeting is also mandatory.
- FLY classes are taught weekly throughout the year. You will be asked to commit to the full 2017/2018 academic year to provide consistency for the students. FLY will provide you with weekly lessons, guidance, and prop bags to support your classes.
- The rate of pay is $35/hour. The number of hours per week for each teacher varies depending on school placement. Most teachers teach between 1 – 10 hours per week.

FLY is seeking diverse candidates who reflect the communities we serve. Please include your general availability and which ages you have experience with in your cover letter.
