The application for Winter-Spring 2018 POP Performances is now open! Applications are due October 15, 2017.

POP: Performance Opportunity Project serves the dance community by providing space, support, and subsidized theater rental rates for performances to non-profit companies and individual dance artists. The intimate 116 seat Studio H Theater at Gibney Dance 280 Broadway includes two separate dressing rooms for the artist's convenience. Artists participating in the POP performance series receive time for technical rehearsal and a three-night performance run. Refer to the Technical Rider for more information on the space.

Technical and dress rehearsal take place on Wednesday and performance nights are Thursday-Saturday. Performances will begin either at 7:30 pm or 8 pm, pending length of show and to be determined by Technical Director. Show run time is limited to 75 minutes including any intermissions.

Dates available for Winter - Spring 2018 include:

January 25 - 27
February 1 - 3
March 22 - 24
April 19 - 21
May 24 - 26
