Greetings,

My name is Deja and I work with various nursing homes and assisted living facilities in New Jersey to provide entertainment to elderly populations. A couple of our assisted living locations are seeking volunteer performers to share their talent with our elderly communities. We are seeking dancers, musicians and poets to visit our assisted living facilities and perform during one of entertainment time slots. If this is something you would be interested in learning more about please email me personally at dejastevens0@gmail.com.

Thank you,

Deja
