VALLETO is a contemporary dance theater company that explores what the unconscious mind hides in the body. Our process becomes a playground for senses, imagination, emotions, identity and politics explored through a magnified glass. VALLETO also narrates different topics in an abstract or humorous way to reveal the relationship between the body, the objective reality and the unconscious mind in this new digital era. VALLETO is now a platform that innovates dance, unifies the arts and advocates for equality. Our MISSION is to create performances, initiatives, dance workshops and events that leave a transformative experience. Our VISION is to inspire, impact, and empower the artistic community all around the globe, and to create initiatives that empower the global unheard voices in the current millennium.
