Alison Chase/Performance is a dance/theater company dedicated to the development of the dramatic forms of physical expression. By breaking down the traditionally separated fields of dance, theater and performance art we bring together accomplished dancers, actors, musicians and artists to create innovative works for the stage and site-specific locales.

Alison Chase is a choreographer, director, performance and installation artist. Often called the "mother" or Pilobolus, she co-founded Pils and Momix in the early 1970's, creating more than 50 works for the stage. She founded AC/P in 2009 as a vehicle to explore interdisciplinary works.

Hope to see you there.
