Dance in Tribeca is a new studio in New York that brings dance and diversity for kids and the entire family. It is known for its love of dance, diversity inclusion and passion. Focusing on a collaborative approach to dance and expression, our team helps every dancer reach their individual goals while, most importantly, having fun. We are on a lookout for driven dance teachers to join our dance community.

We are looking for dedicated teachers specializing in various genres. Ideal genres include, but are not limited to, Hip Hop, styles of African Diaspora, Fitness and Children's dance classes. We are open to other teaching styles as well. To better reflect the community we serve, we strive for diversity in our teaching staff. Your main responsibility will be to build a classroom culture in which students love dance, grow individually and have fun.

Qualifications:

- Degree in dance preferred but not required.
- At least 2 years of dance teaching experience within a diverse age group and educational setting.
- Exceptional knowledge of content in the genre of dance.
- The ideal candidate is someone who has a passion for dance and is able to commit to a consistent schedule.
- Energetic and outgoing.
- Good at teamwork and individual work.

An audition will be held in January (dates to be announced). Please provide a cover letter, resume, headshot and sample lesson/class description to danceintribeca@gmail.com. We will contact you very shortly.

Looking forward for your application!

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to a diverse workforce and do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, national or ethnic origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability or veteran status.
