Filmmaker seeks dancers and movers of all different disciplines and backgrounds to be featured in a video project called "The Fall Catalogue," which will show 100+ different people in a single motion: falling. Filming only takes a few minutes at a home studio in Harlem.

Unable to offer payment, but opportunity to be featured in a creative, collaborative project alongside some other wonderful dancers and choreographers. Participants so far include current and former dancers with the New York City Ballet, Merce Cunningham Dance Company, Liz Gerring Dance, LA Dance Project, Pennsylvania Ballet, Martha Graham Dance Company, Twyla Tharp Dance, MADBOOTS DANCE, Jodi Melnick Dance, Trainor Dance, Emery LeCrone Dance, students of Juilliard and The School of American Ballet, and many more.

Filming afternoons and evenings Monday 12/11-Sunday 12/17.
