

Wednesday, January 3, 2018

Audition for Asian-Pacific American dancers and performers

Company: vessels move
Location: New York, NY
Compensation: Paid

► Share | Print | Download

Gisella Sorrentino/Gaze Photography

2018 CUNY Dance Initiative recipients and movement collective vessels is seeking Asian-Pacific American performers for a new dance-theatre piece Neutral Ground.

Show Details:

Neutral Ground is a 60-minute dance theatre piece that explores existing in the in-between space and the search for belonging as Asian-Pacific Americans. Giving voice to the singular monolith that is the "model minority," Neutral Ground seeks to bring to life the buried stories and emotional landscapes that exist within Asian-Pacific American communities.

Performance Dates: April 26th, 27th, and 28th
Location: LaGuardia Performing Arts Center
Rehearsals: 2-3x per week/TBD.

Neutral Ground is supported by CUNY Dance Initiative, LaGuardia Performing Arts Center, Asian American Arts Alliance.

Casting Details:

Asian-Pacific American performers with strong backgrounds in contemporary movement, improvisation, and dance-theatre. Must be interested in the creative process and working collaboratively with choreographers and fellow performers.

If you would like to be considered, please email your headshot, resume, and recent video(s) that captures your movement and essence to vessels@vesselsmove.com. Please send by January 20th, 2018 and use the subject line "Neutral Ground Submission: FIRST NAME LAST NAME." Selected dancers will be invited to a callback rehearsal.

vessels move
New York, NY

For more information:
Shoey Sun
vessels@vesselsmove.com

< back

previous listing • next listing