A Little About Us

Our mission is to consult with artists and collaborate for self-sufficiency.

We are here for the artist and have the vision of strengthening each artist's ability to overcome their own professional challenges, one Pitt Stop at a time. We are growing our brand, growing our offerings, we need your help. Artists are emerging, and so are established agents to help them land jobs and opportunities to experience their art form in new venues and ways.

There is a located need in the artists' life for temporary/non-binding brand management as well as efficient and effective counseling and skills training. Pittmanagement LLC is a Delaware LLC soon to be fully operating in NYC, and is in need of Business Development interns to assist in company brand development and the discovery of what the artist truly needs in today's climate.

For consideration in joining our Pitt Crew, please email a resumé, a brief cover letter, and an optional artwork sample of any medium to info@pittmanagement.org.

We welcome all, and encourage you to apply if you are looking for a welcoming, challenging, and extremely rewarding climate where you have the ability to positively change the way an artist is assisted in their important career journey.
