About GlobalArts to Go

GlobalArts to Go was started in 2005 with the vision to use cultural arts and education as creative, accessible tools to bring people together. Today, we are proud to share that our diverse team of 70 (and growing) talented specialists have worked with thousands of children and adults in every type of community setting imaginable. From beaches & parks...to schools...and sky-scrapers, GlobalArts to Go has enriched the lives of diverse audiences of all ages. We travel to different communities and bring our unique, custom-designed experiences to clients for single visits, or on-going residencies. Our specialists include multicultural & diversity educators, world music artists, dance/movement specialists, visual artists, drum circle facilitators, social workers, conflict resolution mediators, health & fitness experts, capoeira & martial artists, theater artists, storytellers, teambuilding coaches, environmental educators, youth activists, composers, craftspeople, product developers, multi-media specialists, curriculum developers, authors, holistic health practitioners, webinar designers and more!
