Performance Space New York's Programming Internship provides the opportunity to learn about the operations of a non-profit arts institution. The Programming Intern will support the Senior Producer with the administration and execution of its wide range of programming including performances, exhibitions, and special events.

Interns should be motivated, detailed, have a sense of humor, and an interest in arts administration. Proficiency with MS Word, Excel, and GoogleDocs is required. Commitment is a minimum of two full work-days or equivalent hours, with occasional evening hours for special events as needed. Programming Interns receive a stipend and free admission to Performance Space New York's season. Applicants from all backgrounds are encouraged to apply. Please send a resume and brief cover letter to benjamin@performancespacenewyork.org.

Fall internship runs September - December 2018.
