Short+Sweet (S+S) is the biggest producer of original short-form theatre, music, film, and dance in the world. Presenting - over the last 20 years around 7,000 short works of original theatre, dance, music, and film. We're in 10 countries and 35 cities worldwide and the program in Los Angeles has been growing like wildfire every year since 2016 when we presented 10-minute theatre festival featuring local and international content at the Stella Adler Theater. Since then we've added separate Film and Latino programs and tripled in size from two to six weeks. A highlight of the festival this year is a one week Dance Program featuring the best of contemporary LA choreography and artists overseen by legendary Australian choreographer and dancer Kate Dunn. The festival will be held at the Marilyn Monroe Theatre on Santa Monica Blvd from September 13th until October 21st, with the Dance program running from October 8th until October 14th.

Seeking choreographic submissions of new or existing dance works up to 10 minutes in length.
