

Monday, September 3, 2018

Social Media Volunteer

Company: Global Water Dances - Laban/Bartenieff Institute
Compensation: School Credit and Listing on our Website

► Share | Print | Download

Laban/Bartenieff Institute of Movement Studies - Global Water Dances

Description

Global Water Dances is launching a Crowdfunding Campaign in the coming weeks and we need a Social Media Intern to help us promote our efforts and send out thank yous to our supporters. This position will report to the Project Manager and Artistic Director of Global Water Dances.

Qualifications

Competence with social media platforms: Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn etc.

Professional experience with social media marketing

Excellent communication skills, written and verbal

Cultural awareness and sensitivity

Strong attention to detail

Passion for the arts and/or environment

Ability to work independently as well as function successfully within a collaborative team

Responsibilities

Work with existing and create new social media content consistent with GWD's mission and social media strategy.

Ensure postings are completed on social media platforms based on the timelines.

Communicate with the Program Manager and Artistic Director as needed to ensure timely and effective social media communications

To submit for this position please let us know if you have run social media campaigns before, and provide a work sample or description of the campaign.

Hours of Work: 2-4 hours per week

Can offer school credit

Reports to: Artistic Director

Organization: <https://labaninstitute.org> Program: <http://globalwaterdances.org>

Global Water Dances - Laban/Bartenieff Institute globalwaterdances.org

For more information:
Claire Baum
claire@globalwaterdances.org

