WINTER IMMERSION PROJECT 2019 [choreography focus]

Green Street Studios

Thursday, Jan 3 - Sunday, Jan 6

(Thurs-Sat 9:30-3:30; Sunday 4:30-7:30; Informal showing of work on Sunday)

The Winter (WIP) Immersion Project is designed as a rigorous training experience for motivated dancers, ages 18 and older, within a professional contemporary dance company environment. During WIP you will study, rehearse, and perform with co-artistic director Jessie Jeanne Stinnett and members of the company. All students will take daily class taught by current company members.

Who Should Apply

Students and professionals ages 18 years and older who possess a strong technical background, a regular improvisation practice, and value somatic awareness. Applicants must also have an interest in expanding compositional expertise through advanced improvisational tasks, used to generate movement material. It is highly recommended that prospective participants research the choreographers whose works are part of the company's repertory before completing the WIP application, in order to understand the context in which the company is currently working.

How to Apply

To express your interest in upcoming Immersion Projects please send a letter of interest to bostondancetheater@gmail.com

Please state your:

1. Age
2. Current place of training (school, university) or employment (company, collective)
3. Styles or training and length of study of each discipline
4. Motivation for applying to the Immersion Project

Imagined beneficial outcomes of attending the Immersion Project, should you be accepted into the program
