Paul Gilmore

VALLETO is seeking a female dancers for apprentice position. Apprentices will take part in the creation of our April or May residencies and our Fall 2019 season, plus additional events. Apprentices will be compensated with performance pay.

Those who choose to audition should have a strong ballet and contemporary background, and also have experience with improvisational methods. We are looking for dance artists who are willing to challenge themselves in the creative process of our next season and who connect to VALLETO's mission. We are seeking creative dancers with drive, passion, endurance, and commitment to the process. Our repertory is very physical and emotionally driven.

This audition will be INVITATION ONLY
