KAGD Productions is Casting Dancers of color who sing for an upcoming musical/comedy live performance set to open early spring in New York City. Dancers must be classically trained and have fluency in Jazz, African, Hip Hop, and contemporary dance genres. Must be able to sing in jazz, gospel, and R&B harmony. The work will include comedic banter in addition to choreography and singing in harmony. Please be warmed up and ready to dance and sing at the start time. Please prepare a ballad or uptempo song with the instrumental track that you will bring with you (mobile phone, iPad etc.). Interested dancers, please respond to the following email: jgthephoenix@gmail.com. Include a current headshot and resume (include your vocal range on resume). You will be contacted with the exact date, time and location. Auditions will be held the afternoon of Saturday, January 12th in New York City.
