Are you interested in aesthetically innovative performance? Do you like exploring multiple mediums when viewing performance? Please help us make it happen by volunteering with us at our upcoming engagement at University Settlement House. You will be helping out with basic performance preparation tasks (ushering, programs, greeting, etc.) and will be able to see the Rachel Thorne Germond Performance Collage (RTGPC) perform.

Location

University Settlement House - 185 Eldridge Street, NY, NY 10002

Available Volunteer Dates & Times

Tech/Dress: February 12-13th - 6-10pm

Performances: February 14-15th - 6-10pm

Performance/Reception: February 16th - 6-11pm

Please email rtg@rachelthornegermond.com (click to start email) with the dates (preferably >2) that you would be available to assist us. Thank you in advance for helping us make the evenings of performance and the opportunity to share our art possible.

In its commitment to bringing an original and contemporary vision to the public and to building appreciation for live performance, Rachel Thorne Germond: Performance Collage is dedicated to high standards of aesthetic innovation. Learn more at rachelthornegermond.com.
