Details (press Alt+0 (zero) for accessibility instructions)

Brooklyn Ballet seeks classically trained dancers with strong partnering skills, contemporary dance experience a plus, for our 2019 Fall Season.

The audition will be held April 14th, 2019 @ 3pm, in the Mark O'Donnell Theatre (160 Schermerhorn St., Downtown Brooklyn)

Our repertory, guided by Artistic Director Lynn Parkerson, reflects a multi-disciplinary and multi-cultural approach to ballet, and our dances are created through collaborations with musicians, writers, designers, hackers, visual artists and our Brooklyn neighbors. Opening our ballets to interdisciplinary influences helps us extend the form in unique directions, even while rooted in the classical idiom.

Please bring headshot/résumé, $20 audition fee, and pointe shoes for the female identifying. Repertory will be taught.
