LEIMAY's New Subsidized Fellowship nurtures a half-year long creative and research process for 5 artists. It provides an arena for artistic exploration, professional development, and public outreach to a local community of early career movement-based artists with an interdisciplinary practice who seek a space to create and share their work in a supportive environment of fellow artists.

SUBSIDIZED FELLOWS RECEIVE:

Up to 60 hours of fully subsidized studio time during a 6-month period. A stipend of $200-$500 for the presentation of new work at the OUTSIGHT series. An opportunity to present an outdoor public performance in one of the OUTSIGHT presentations in a community garden co-presented by LEIMAY and the New York Restoration Project. And opportunities to participate in peer showings to engage in conversation around your work with other fellows and LEIMAY Artistic Directors. As well as professional development sessions and resource-sharing opportunities.

The LEIMAY Subsidized Fellowship lasts for 6 months. 1 Cycle will be offered in 2019: May-October. 5 Artists will be selected for this 6-month Cycle.

The final deadline for the online application: February 27, midnight, EST.
