Toscana Dance HUB is a multi-layered platform serving as a training, performing, and producing entity led by a group of international art makers (dancers, choreographers, musicians, composers). It fosters artistic collaboration and an open dialogue focused on our responsibilities as members of the global community. Our students, the "hubbers", discover in Florence and Agropoli, a safe place for exploration, forge life-long friendships in the process, secure job opportunities, hone life and artistic skills, but most importantly, they re-evaluate their interpretation of physical and interpersonal distances. Toscana Dance HUB performs at two prestigious contemporary dance venues: the Florence Dance Festival, held at the Chostro Grande, Santa Maria Novella in Florence and the Summer Agropolese at the Castello Angioino Aragonese in Agropoli.

Founder and Artistic Director: Giada Matteini Ferrone (Florence/NYC)

Music Director: Toni Costa (Barcelona)

Artists collaborators 2019: Kristina and Sadé Alleyne (London), Roy Assaf (Tel Aviv) and Piero Leccese (Agropoli)
