THE 2019-20 DANCE IN PROCESS RESIDENCY APPLICATION IS NOW OPEN.

PROPOSAL DEADLINE: Tuesday, April 23 at 5:00 pm.

ABOUT DIP: DANCE IN PROCESS

Dance in Process (DiP) is Gibney's residency program designed to provide "mid-career" New York City-based dance artists who are "mid-stage" of their process for a project with the opportunity for creative immersion.

Following an open call for applications, Gibney will assemble a panel selected by DiP applicants to review applications submitted from New York City-based dance community. There will be a selection of eight DiP resident artists for the 2019-2020 season; seven selected by the panel along with one artist selected by Gibney's Senior Curatorial Director.

Resident Artists will each receive three weeks of exclusive, continuous access to a studio at one of Gibney's locations, as well as a $7,500 stipend and a $2,000 allowance for artistic consultants. During their season in residence, participating artists will also receive 40 hours of discounted studio space in designated studios, as well as administrative support from Gibney staff.

ABOUT THE SPACE & RESIDENCY DATES

Gibney has twenty-three studios across two Manhattan locations. Granted studio space will be large enough to accommodate the needs of working choreographers and companies, but small enough to allow for close and private work. Studios are assigned by Gibney staff based on need and availability. Please see the following DiP residency designated dates. Applicants are required to choose a minimum of four of the following choices in order for their application to be submitted. Each Resident Artist will meet with Gibney's Producer to organize individual artists' needs for their residency.
