Simone created Body By Simone to find a fun, joyous way of working out and to share the love and beauty of dance with as many people as possible. We are not only a fitness studio, but also a safe, ego-free environment where clients can reach their health and fitness goals while transforming the mind, body and soul. We take great pride in carefully selecting trainers who possess a loving, open heart as well as great leadership skills. We not only focus on providing the best workout, but also a supportive environment that people can call their second home.
