A classically trained dancer with acting experience needed for a short film. Any age, but must still be able to perform en pointe alongside 2 professional ballet dancers in a short piece in the film. Film synopsis - Wendy is a ballet dancer who was forced to retire early because her agoraphobia worsened. She spends her days productively, but does not leave her house for anything. Gabriel, a Pilates instructor, will come to her house to train her and bring dance back into her life. Film will be shot in Jersey City over a 3-day period in September. Please include a link to a dancing reel.
