TRAINING & HIRING NEW TEACHERS
Inclusive Dance Education

Interested in sharing the joys and benefits of dance?

For over a decade, our unique non-profit program has been making ballet accessible for ALL children using The Schlachte Method, a certified curriculum developed to accommodate all learning styles, body types, and abilities.

We are looking to expand our staff with new teachers passionate about making dance accessible.

Candidates can become certified and join our teaching staff by attending seminars, learning curricula and theory, and gaining in-class experience.

Ballet For All Kids is a unique non-profit program that has been making dance accessible to ALL children for over 11 years. We use The Schlachte Method, a certified curriculum developed to accommodate all learning styles, body types, and abilities.

We want to expand our staff with new teachers passionate about making dance accessible.

Candidates can become certified and could potentially join our teaching staff upon completion. Certification involves learning material via seminars and online and volunteering in classes as a one-on-one assistant to gain experience before supervised teaching.

Ideal candidates have experience working with children with special needs or disabilities as well as a strong ballet background. Training begins in the fall and will take a few months.
