ABOUT BLOODLINE: Formerly known as Fierce Roots, Bloodline Dance Theatre was created by Lamont Joseph as a collective of the arts for emerging choreographers and dancers in Brooklyn. The company is comprised of five choreographers and over 20 dancers ranging from beginner to professional. The company focuses on creating ballets that are reflective of current times as well as historical and religious concepts. To date, the company has performed for several NYC public schools, The West Indian American Carnival Association, The Brooklyn Museum, The African Spirit Awards, St Paula's Baptist Church, and is Residency at Medgar Evers College City University of New York. As we approach the 2019 fall season, Bloodline Dance Theatre is seeking male and female dancers for upcoming performances and shows in the month of September, October, & November. Dancers must be trained in the styles of ballet, modern, and african dance. All performances are compensated. For further inquiry or an invitation to audition for the company, please email us at bloodline.dance.theatre@gmail.com. Dancers must be available on tuesday and or thursday evening through out the months of September, October, November and December
