Seeking dancers for collective

Company: -

Compensation: None

I'm a dancer based in Brooklyn looking for other movers in the city!

A little about me: I have a background in ballet, modern, contemporary, jazz, and improv. I previously danced with a company in Texas that celebrates Mexican-American culture & have choreographed a couple pieces for them.

I work in design professionally, but want to continue dancing, performing, and building community here. I'd love to build a collective of folks who want the same and create space to experiment & play. I know this is open, but if you're interested, let me know in your email what you want -- a chance to develop choreography? to make dance films? to collaborate w/ other artists? etc. I am really open about what this looks like, just depends on who responds. :-)

I usually rent studio space in Manhattan on weekday evenings or weekends. Availability isn't flexible but location is! Ideally, we could meet once a week.

If interested, please send me an email along with some info about you, links to your dancing, and social media if you want. All styles welcome.
