Movement Research's Parent Artist Residency program aims to address the need for flexible and supportive creative arts services for New York City-based parent artists in the field of dance and movement-based art forms. The high cost of childcare in NYC, combined with studio rental costs, are often a barrier preventing parent artists from having time in the studio to produce creative work. Movement Research aims to help address this challenge through the Parent Artist Residency Program.

Two (2) artists will be selected to participate in the 2020 the Parent Artist Residency Program. Applications will be reviewed and selected through a panel process.

The 2020 residencies will take place between July 22 and August 31, 2020.

Selected artists will receive 50 hours of rehearsal space, a $500 residency stipend, a childcare stipend in the amount of $1000 and a ten class card for access to Movement Research classes.

Movement Research's 2020 Parent Artist Residency Program is supported in part by The Sustainable Arts Foundation.
