

Thursday, January 9, 2020

Lead Trainer Role - P.volve Chicago

Company: P.volve

Compensation: Competitive pay, full benefit package, and a full-time position

► Share | Print | Download

P.volve is a resistance-based, high intensity / low impact fitness method that strengthens, sculpts and energizes the entire body. Backed by Camelot Venture Group, the group that brought to life SmileDirectClub, Quicken Loans, 1-800-Contacts, and many other disruptive DTC brands, P.volve is revolutionizing the fitness industry and poised for rapid growth.

The Lead Trainer position is responsible for leading all ongoing training initiatives as directed by Corporate to ensure quality standards of the P.volve brand at their home studio/s. The Lead Trainer is a leader for their team and exudes the company's core values, modeling outstanding performance and professionalism. After successfully completing the 100-hour immersive training program, the Lead Trainer will assist the corporate training team to ensure that all aspects of the class experience are thriving at their local studio. In addition to ongoing training, the Lead Trainer will be the point-person for questions and concerns among their team. The Lead Trainer will organize Trainer meetings and serve as a liaison to corporate to ensure that Trainers are delivering effective, energizing and creative classes in line with the P.volve fitness method. This position will report into the Vice President of Talent and Training.

Responsibilities:

- Maintain 9-12 teaching hours per week
- Serve as advisor/mentor for the team
- Serve as an expert on sequencing, client connection, alignment, motivation, music, vocals and social media to embody and model the P.volve class experience
- Provide continuing education/training to Trainer team as directed by corporate
- Work cross-functionally with Studio Operator to develop initiatives as they pertain to Trainer performance, strategic schedule optimization, promotions, client attendance and retention, and other operational tasks as directed
- Be present at all Trainer meetings and present to the group when necessary
- Remain current in the fitness world, keeping informed of competitive offerings and opportunities for improvement, to ensure market share
- Participate in outside continued education to keep personal skill level and certifications up to date, as advised by Corporate

Requirements:

- 3+ years of group fitness teaching experience with a strong performance record
- Experience coaching the ongoing development of trainer teams to employ best practices to maintain brand consistency and operational scalability
- Experience leading successful teacher trainings to ensure high-quality standards
- A rich understanding of safe exercise practices; anatomy, alignment, physiology and proper movement execution
- Must exemplify core values and act as a leader within the organization
- Strong communication, organization and time management skills
- Excellent business acumen with an ability to be both strategic and hands-on with staff
- Possesses a big picture focus while implementing detailed, systematic work to drive results
- Current Trainer certification from select accredited certifying bodies, including, but not limited to ACSM, ACE, NASM, NSCA, ISSA, or AFAA

- Bachelor's degree in an exercise related field a plus

Whether you live in NYC and are looking to relocate, or are a Chicago native and open to spending about a month in NYC for Lead Trainer training- THIS ROLE IS FOR YOU!

We are looking for a Lead Trainer in our Chicago Studio and are open to relocation! We are looking for talent to lead the charge in our brand new West Loop location! This is an opportunity to help pioneer and build a brand new flagship studio for P.volve in Chicago!

P.volve

For more information:
Evan Breed
ebreed@pvolve.com

< back

previous listing • next listing