About the Position:

Want to learn how the power of dance can change the world? Want to be part of the movement? Harness dance as a tool into deeper self discovery and empowerment. This position offers you the chance to do this for yourself, and to Guide others into states of rapid expansion, freedom and transformation.

About the Company:

We are an embodiment practice, a meditative dance journey that releases stagnation while carrying us into higher states of consciousness. We have classes and workshops in multiple cities around the country. Additionally, we implement deeper healing programs in partnership with women-centric organizations, that support the transmutation of trauma.

Responsibilities:

Be a safe space to guide others home to themselves. Teach classes and workshops at selected studio spaces, market yourself as a guide and be an aligned representation of our brand.

Must:

Be Trustworthy

Be A Safe Space for Others

Have Dance/Somatic Experience

Be Conscious-Minded and Hearted

Be Emotionally Mature

Be a Confident Leader and Trusted Guide

Tentative Training Dates:

2 Weeks in May

About the Training:

The training is a two week intensive that ends with a graduation retreat. The experience is not simply to learn how to Guide others through the method. The training is also a journey home to yourself.
