Introducing the Shut In Dance Film Fest

A digital festival for artistic growth and collaboration in times of separation.

Directed by Nicole Berger, choreographer for television programs including The Good Place, VEEP, and Brooklyn Nine Nine. The mission and goal of the Shut In Dance Film Fest is simple: provide dance artists education and resources to not only pass the time during social distancing, but grow as artists. Through a process of distanced collaboration we will create and premier a series of high quality short dance films.

Participation is open to any and everyone. Guidelines and submission info can be found at The Shut In Dance Festival website: <https://www.holessortfilm.com/shut-in-dance-film-fest-2020>

Submissions open Wednesday April 15 through May 30 for a digital premier of the final films in June.
