Plenty of Rhythm's dance company is an advanced dance group designed for dance students who wish to enhance their performance skills. This is the first step students will take in order to become seasoned and well-rounded dancers. This is strictly an audition-based company.

Its members will be given the opportunity to perform in various genres, take master classes, create their own choreography, compete in competitions, and watch professional performances. Each year select members will get the opportunity to audition for Broadway shows, dance intensive programs, TV Shows, and talent agencies. The goal for our company is to give students the push they need to have successful performance careers while having fun.
