KYL/D's Inhale on Camera Series

Now Accepting Applications for Performance and Visual Artists

Kun-Yang Lin/Dancers invites movement and visual artists of all genres who have created or are in the process of creating work for the camera or visual art pieces that they are interested in sharing, to submit work for KYL/D's Inhale on Camera Series to be held on Saturday, October 24th. Applications are due September 11th.

This event will feature dances and artistic visions made for the camera, plus a projected display of visual artwork along with information about the artists. At Inhale on Camera, audience members will be provided with a link to the digital program which, in addition to providing information about the contributing dance and video artists, will also include buttons for purchasing selected visual art pieces included in the display. This is a curated high-art experience where audience members can enjoy incredible art, made for the camera, and shop for original artwork, in a safe, socially distanced real-life environment. CHI Movement Arts Center, home of KYL/D will be hosting this exciting live event, featuring a rolling projection of the final video selections, with small audiences filtering through the space at 12 spaced-out entry times throughout the day and evening. Please note that KYLD is monitoring the COVID-19 situation and will be making sure to adhere to all safety requirements so that this event will be a safe and stimulating experience for all participants.

KYL/D's InHale Performance Series offers a supportive environment that fosters creative exchange of ideas, cultivates community, and provides opportunities for members of the public to experience a wide spectrum of artistic disciplines.

Selected artists receive a free platform to share their art, technical assistance and audience feedback, plus free timed tickets for the applicant and one of their fans/ supporters who would like to attend the event.

To date, KYL/D has presented over 1000 movement artists from PA and beyond including from DC, NY, VA, MD, MA, CT, IL, NC, and MI. The shows fill to capacity, so with limited spaces available for this event, we expect that reservations will be necessary!

Complete an application here: <http://www.kyld.org/inhale/>

The application process includes a work sample, artist description and $10 application fee. We have reduced our usual fee of $20 by half with the mission of supporting all of the artists who are pushing forward during these most trying times, while still covering our basic production costs. Artists will be notified of their acceptance status one month before the performance.

"In a city like Philadelphia where even the established companies find themselves vying for the same audiences, it's easy for emerging artists to get overlooked. Fortunately, the quarterly InHale Performance Series, hosted by Kun-Yang Lin/Dancers at the CHI Movement Arts Center, gives up-and-coming choreographers a much needed and well deserved chance to strut their stuff." ~The Dance Journal
