Kit Modus seeks proposals for new works to be created via virtual choreographic residency. The Atlanta-based company is committed to transporting audiences into a world of innovative movement by developing and presenting an expansive repertoire of original contemporary dance works by outstanding choreographers.

Past guest choreographers include Mark Caserta (Complexions, Ballet Jazz de Montreal), Autumn Eckman (Hubbard Street), and Noelle Kayser (Visceral, Northwest Dance Project)

The start date and duration of the residency will be negotiated with selected creators.

Length of work: roughly between 10-15 mins

Choreographer's stipend to be paid at the completion of the piece.
