We invite you to join us for new weekly company improv jam starting on Saturday February 6th at 10AM EST on Zoom. This week it will be taught by Diane Auriol. Each week the leader will be change and will be announced.

Diane Auriol was a student with Silva Ricard Ballet in her hometown of Millau, France where she had a strong ballet technique as well as jazz and contemporary, touring in Spain, Germany and Portugal.

At 18, she moved to New York and became a student at the Martha Graham school and a performer with Graham 2. Diane graduated from the Martha Graham School in 2018 performing the Graham solo "Lamentation" coached by Peggy Lymann. She has been teaching at Adelphi University in Long Island as well as assisting in restaging some Graham repertory such as Chronicle.

She has also studied the Gaga Technique in Israel and New York, has worked with many upcoming choreographers such as Joe Monteleone, Susie McHugh, Guanglei Hui, Yoshito Sakuraba or Miriam Barbosa as well as Patricia Birch.

Diane has joined Cross Move Lab in 2019 and performed Guanglei Hui's choreography at the Queens Museum and Dumbo Dance Festival.

Since the beginning of 2017, she has been exploring her own style as a choreographer and has been performing her own works in New York City and Philadelphia.

It will be a 1 hour Improv Jam where we will explore the body, musicality, surroundings, etc...

We want this hour to be as fun as possible to release all the stress we can feel during the week and in this COVID life we are living in.

We would love for you to join us and discover our talented company members through this weekly improv jam.
