ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

"Black Lives Rising" is a Virtual Dance Film Festival, showcasing the creative, diverse voices of artists who desire to share a meaningful message about the Black American experience in current times. Blackness comes in all different shades, experiences, and expressions. Through sharing your unique message, you offer a higher truth that invites healing, celebration, awareness, and empowerment not only of Black people, but the human race. The Festival will take place in early December, and will be accessible via the festival's landing page (in development). The website: blrdancefilmfest.com, is currently under construction.
