Consulate General of Spain

Mixtures is a collaborative program between Spanish and American artists based in NYC that work in different fields. The main goal is to create works that combine two artistic disciplines in order to generate new work dynamics and promote cultural exchange.

The program is supported and organized by the Consulate General of Spain.

Program Details:

- 3 grants for Spanish artists & 3 grants for American artists
- Each grant will be funded with $1500 that will be paid at the end of the program.
- Each awarded artist will be paired with another artist. Each couple will work together to create a genuine work mixing two disciplines during 3 months.
- The work in progress will be documented by the Consulate General of Spain with photos, videos, interviews... that could be shared on its social media and web page.
- Mid-process a meeting with all awarded artists will be organized in order to share and monitorize their progress.
- The final work will be presented during a public event in New York City. Details of the event will be determined once the program starts
