KYL/D's InHale Performance Series

Call for Submissions for Live Performances

Kun-Yang Lin/Dancers invites performance artists of all genres- dance, music, spoken word to submit works for KYL/D's InHale Performance Series taking place Live on SATURDAY, February 26th at 7:30pm. Applications are due January 21st.

KYL/D's InHale Performance Series offers a supportive environment that fosters creative exchange of ideas, cultivates community, and provides opportunities for members of the public to experience a wide spectrum of dance/ movement disciplines.

Selected artists receive free performance space, technical assistance and audience feedback.

To date, KYL/D has presented over 1000 movement artists from PA and beyond including from DC, NY, VA, MD, MA, CT, IL, NC, and MI. The shows fill to capacity!

Complete an application here: <https://www.kyld.org/inhale>

The application process includes a work sample, artist description and $10 application fee. We have reduced our usual fee of $20 by half with the mission of supporting all of the artists who are pushing forward during these most trying times, while still covering our basic production costs. If this fee creates a barrier for you, please contact Inhale Performance Series Curator, Evalina Carbonell: evalina@kyld.org to request a waived fee. Artists/Organizations should submit pieces of 10 minutes or less. Longer pieces will be considered, but short pieces are prioritized to present a greater number of artists. We strongly encourage applications from BIPOC artists and communities. Artists will be notified of their acceptance status 4 weeks before the performance.

"In a city like Philadelphia where even the established companies find themselves vying for the same audiences, it's easy for emerging artists to get overlooked. Fortunately, the quarterly InHale Performance Series, hosted by Kun-Yang Lin/Dancers at the CHI Movement Arts Center, gives up-and-coming choreographers a much needed and well deserved chance to strut their stuff." ~The Dance Journal
